About: I am Dr. Mohit Sharma, working as an Assistant Professor in the Faculty of Homoeopathy. With 9 years of experience in teaching and clinical practice, I am dedicated to advancing homoeopathic education and patient care, particularly through the effective use of repertory.

I earned my MD in Repertory from Guru Ravidas Ayurved University, Hoshiarpur in 2015, following my BHMS from Baba Farid University of Health Sciences, Ludhiana in 2012. I have published 3 research papers and remain actively engaged in academic development and clinical research.

My key areas of interest include repertorial analysis, individualized homoeopathic treatment, and integrating classical principles with modern clinical approaches. I am passionate about training future homoeopaths to approach healing with precision and empathy.
